Principals

Where there's a will, there's an A. The class of '90 has certainly lived up to its slogan. May this continue to be your guiding light in future years. Best of wishes to the class of '90.

Edward W. Knight Jr.

Edward W. Knight Jr.
Principal

To the graduating class of '90, I wish you prosperity, long life and the benediction of this old Irish prayer:

Take time to work —
it is the price of success.
Take time to think — it is the source of power.
Take time to play —
it is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to read —
it is the foundation of wisdom.
Take time to be friendly —
it is the road to happiness.
Take time to dream —
it is hitching your wagon to a star.
Take time to love and be loved — it is the privilege of the Gods.
Take time to look around — the day is too short to be selfish.
Take time to laugh —
it is the music of the soul.

Senior Class Officers

Last spring the class of 1990, soon to be seniors, faced a big decision: "Who will we elect as our senior class officers?" the anxious juniors wondered. Votes were cast in homeroom, and the race was down to two people for each office. Finally, the big day came when the class was able to hear the candidates' speeches. Once again, ballots were passed out in homeroom. The juniors had at last elected their senior class officers. The winners should be proud of themselves, as well as the rest who ran. The four officers and their offices are: Kerry Rodden — President, Kara Sweeney — Vice President, Chris Ziniti — Secretary, and Jeanne Cheverie — Treasurer. These four seniors proved to be hard-working, responsible, and determined. If a problem arose, Kerry, Kara, Chris, and Jeanne were quick to come up with a solution. With the help of advisors Miss Cragin and Mrs. Pisciottoli, the officers worked hard to help the senior class earn money. They organized a senior fund-raiser, which had the seniors selling Christmas gifts, cheese, and the traditional candy bars. The officers also put together the Halloween fair, the senior semi-formal, and the back to school dance. They also worked with their classmates at the Seniors for Seniors Dinner and "Godspell," the senior class play. Kerry, Kara, Chris, and Jeanne, you have helped the class of 1990 have a fantastic year!

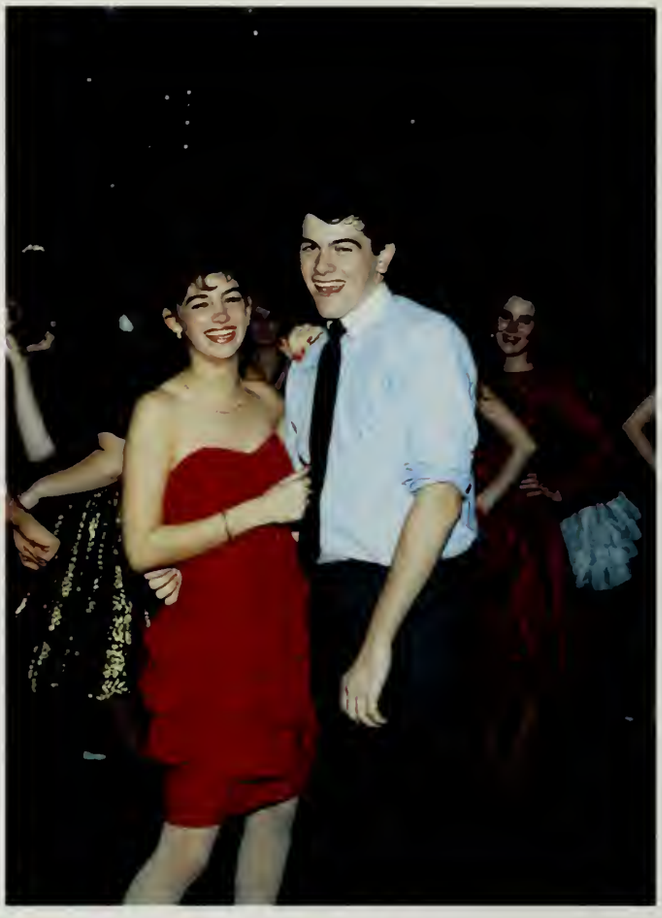
Junior Prom

On the night of May 26, 1989, the class of 1990 met at the Elks' Hall for their long-awaited Junior Prom. Unlike the dreary weather outside, the hall inside was bright and lively. The seniors danced the night away to such memorable songs as "Express Yourself" and "Always and Forever", spun by disc jockey Lisa Z. At 11:00, the Junior Prom sadly ended, but the memories will always last in the minds of those who attended.

Senior Semi-Formal

The Senior Semi-Formal was a great start to a long weekend. Held on Thursday, October 26 at the Elks' Hall, it was the first senior event of the year. Thanks to the dance committee's assistance, a good time was had by all of those who attended. The dance ended with O.M.D.'s "If You Leave", but everyone would rather have stayed.



Halloween

On October 31, 1989, Devo and the Beastie Boys were at Weymouth North along with assorted witches, goblins, and ghosts. They were just a few of the many students and faculty who dressed up in costumes for Halloween. The senior class held a Halloween fair in the cafeteria, which had a ghoulish air, thanks to the creative decorating by all four classes. At the fair, students as well as at the faculty and administration. They could also play musical chairs to Michael Jackson's "Thriller". The spirited day ended with a costume competition in the gym. Among the winners were a toy soldier, a pack of M&M's, and Bert.

Seniors for Seniors Dinner

The fourth annual Seniors for Seniors Dinner was a huge success due to the senior class earning more money for the event than previous senior classes. Held on November 19, 1989, the dinner was organized by chairpersons Michael Rogers, Kristen West, and Kristin Miller. Senior citizens were treated to a turkey dinner, served by members of the senior class, and entertainment, provided by the cheerleaders and concert choir. The afternoon ended with students and senior citizens dancing to the "Hokey Pokey" and doing "The Chicken."

Pep Rally

On November 22, 1989, the entire school gathered in the gym to cheer the football team on to victory. Coach Kelly and Captain Jason Cappello got the students' spirits to soar. The seniors and freshmen collaborated on a skit as did the juniors and sophomores. The seniors and freshmen received the chance to show their true colors, maroon and gold, by singing the football song. The Maroons showed the town they were unbeat-a-bull by defeating South, 20-3, at the eighteenth annual Thanksgiving game, held on Saturday because of Thursday's snowstorm.

Homecoming

Homecoming Dance, held on November 11, 1989, in the cafeteria, was a fun night of socializing and dancing. The cheerleaders worked hard at organizing the dance. All attendees were in a great mood since North had defeated Marshfield that afternoon, 13-0, at the Homecoming Game. Seniors voted the previous morning for Homecoming King and Queen. The lucky couple was Rich Mroz and Lisa McGaffigan.

SEMI FORMAL

DIRECTOR
EUGENE STENSTROM

Dear 1990 Graduates
We wish each of you a life filled with good fortune. Take the skills you have been taught throughout your high school years and put them to good use in your individual trade areas.
Take time to reflect on how you have grown from teenagers to young adults making your way now through Life's trails and tribulations.
Every successful person has experienced an occasional failure, however, successful people have the ability to keep on going on no matter how discouraging life may become. A positive mental attitude is the realization that there is a solution for every problem. Your self image dictates how successful you will be. The way you perceive yourself will either be a restriction or a license to achieve.
You have depended on us to educate you, now we depend on you. Your manual skills and your knowledge to work as professionals are your tools to success. Continue to develop your craft and work with confidence and pride.

Good Luck in the future
Your Directors and Faculty
Weymouth Voc. Tech. High

Best wishes to each and every member of the class of 1990. Fond memories will remain with us at Weymouth Vo-Tech long after you have graduated.
But our doors will always remain open for you to visit with us.
Good Luck!

IN MEMORIAM

Brian J. McElligott

The Emerald Isle has lost it's shine.
God called him home, a friend of mine.
His life waned like an eclipsing moon,
Why was he hailed so young, too soon?
There's still so much yet left unsaid.
Alas! Who among us looks ahead?

He was an educator, a friend, a husband, a dad.
We'll cope with his passing, 'though tragically sad.
Life is not who you are; it's who you reach.
This legacy daily he did teach.
After life's anguishes, ecstasies, and pains,
Only a memory — a happy memory remains.

THE YEAR

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, under the guidance of Mr. Player, consists of students who are interested in learning about the culture of Spanish speaking peoples. President Peter Dunn, Vice-President Tony Sacchetti, Treasurers Mark Mitchelson and Kristin Miller, and Secretaries Kerry Rodden and Kara Sweeney are the hardworking officers. On October 17, 1989, members of the club went to Boston to see an Argentinian dance and music group. The emphasis was placed on Gaucho music and dance from the 1850's to the present. Eight club members traveled to the Yucatan Peninsula during February vacation. They visited Merida, Uxmal, Chichen, Itza, and spent four days on the beaches of Cancun. The eventful year of the club ended with a cook-out in May.

French Club

Under the guidance of President Peter Dionne, the French Club flourished. Club activities, organized by Mrs. Joyce, included an eventful voyage to New York City, a multi-topical newspaper, and a Christmas party with French carols. The trip to the Big Apple was composed of happy little French students traveling to La Bonne Soupe, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the U.N., and Macy's Vice-President Mike Faletra, Secretary Maureen Snell, Treasurer Stacey Webb, and Publicity Officer Patrick Benedetti aided Peter in his leadership. The club knew that with a president like Peter, they were able to overcome many obstacles. The club had a fabulous year. Many thanks to Mrs. Joyce for all of her help.

Reflections

Under the creative leadership of editor-in-chief Patrick Benedetti, the Reflections staff of 1990 enjoyed a successful year. Teacher advisor, Mrs. Marie Worcester encouraged the staff to submit their excellent writing, artwork, and photography to the award-winning magazine. Seniors Bill Turner and Michael Faletra and a strong staff of underclassmen worked hard to judge, edit, and prepare the copy and artwork for publication. With many staff members returning next year, the future success of the magazine is assured.

The Bull

This year brought many changes to The Bull. There were some new faces, and some olds ones with new responsibilities. William Turner took over as Editor-in-Chief and with the help of Advisor Mr. Farina assembled a new staff of editors including sophomores Elizabeth Doherty, as Copy Editor, and Kim Taylor, as Production Editor. Returning Seniors were Maureen Snell, as Business Editor, Patrick Benedetti, as Graphics Editor, and Mike Faletra, as Staff Photographer. The Bull produced three issues this year, but looks forward to returning to the usual four next year. It was a year of good people and great news.

Honor Society

Honor Society is composed of students who have had outstanding grades for the past four years. Under the guidance of Advisor Mrs. Marinos and President Michael Faletra, the group does work for charities. During the month of December, the Honor Society sold candy canes to students. The proceeds went to a charity.

Academic Decathlon

This year's Academic Decathlon team finished eighth out of 55 schools statewide in the preliminary competition. Bill Turner was the team's high scorer and Mike Faletra was awarded the coach's medal for his overall performance. Other starters were: Captain Kristen West, Stacey Strong, Carrie Burke, Dennis Walsh, Scott Marsh, Rob Donovan, and Mike Broderick. The team, coached by Mrs. Miller, participated in the State finals on March 3. This was the third year in a row that North qualified for the finals.

Math Team

The Weymouth North Math Team was, as usual, outstanding. Coached by Mr. Green, the team solved difficult, complex math problems. The team competed with other schools on the South Shore. The Math Team invested many hours studying math problems and their hard work paid off.

Hole in the Wall

Hole in the Wall, the school store, sells food, school supplies, and clothing to teachers and students. Mrs. Doucette advises the employees, who are senior students. Manager Nancy Campbell and Assistant Manager Kirk Barrett wait on customers, order stock, and hire employees. All of the profit from the store goes to the senior class. The senior class benefits from receiving the store's profit and the senior employees benefit from the experience that working at the store gives them.

Student Council

The Student Council had a productive year. President Kristin Miller, Vice President Kathleen Cross, Treasurer Donnie Boice, Secretary Melissa Smith, and Advisor John Noonan planned numerous activities for the students of North. The council sponsored Jar Wars, which enabled each class to have money put into their treasury. All four classes also competed in a paper chain contest. The class with the longest paper chain in the cafeteria, which was the senior class, won money for their treasury. The Student Council organized the very popular Data Match. The girls and boys who participated could buy a list that gave them the names of the opposite sex that he or she was compatible with. The students of North were lucky to have such a devoted group of people on the Student Council.

Student Government Day

Dave Milchunes and Scott Marsh were elected by their classmates to be Weymouth North's Student Government Day delegates. Student Government Day is a program about the state and government, which has students playing the roles of governmental officials. Both of the students learn quite a lot from this exciting event.

Dave Milchunes, Scott Marsh

Rajni Steeves, Carrie Burke

Band President and Vice President

Rajni Steeves, Band President, and Carrie Burke, Band Vice President, have important jobs. The two girls organize events that the band is in. Rajni and Carrie had important roles in planning the February concert. The girls helped all of the band members have an exciting and eventful year.

Mark Galluzzo, Heather Condon

Band Librarians

Mark Galluzzo, Band Secretary and Librarian, and Heather Condon, Band Assistant Librarian, put much time and effort into their work. Both Mark and Heather have the job of taking care of all the band literature. They have to be sure that all of the band's music is in order and will stay that way. Mark also takes notes at the band's meetings.

Mary Conway, Jessica Henley, Debbie Ainslie, Beth Berard, Kim Merrill, Jeff Sweeney (missing: Christine Jennings)

Band Executive Board

The Band Executive Board is very important to the band. The board voices their opinion at band meetings. They make suggestions and these are usually favored by all band members. The group also works with the band officers. The executive board wants all band members to have a great time in band.

Key Club

The Key Club is a service organization in which members take on projects to benefit fellow students and the community. Once gain, the club assisted the Weymouth Kiwanis Club in serving Thanksgiving dinner to Weymouth Senior Citizens. The club had a successful year due to Advisor Mr. Decoste and President Michael Rogers' hard work.

Assembly Committee

The Assembly Committee, under the guidance of Mrs. Smith, organized very successful assemblies this year. In January, the students and teachers of North enjoyed mime Trent Arterberry's show. The entire month of March, Humanities Month, was filled with interesting and exciting assemblies. Hypnotist Fran Coutier returned in March to give a repeat performance that kept the audience in hysterics. The O'Reilly's, featuring North's own Mr. Martin and Mr. Ghiorse, performed their great sounding Irish music on March 9. Other assemblies during March included analyzing of handwriting, wood carving, jewelry making, illustrating children's books, and dog breeding. The assembly committee does a terrific job of organizing assemblies that entertain as well as teach.

Scholars and Cents

Scholars and Cents, the school bank, enables students with accounts to make transactions during lunch periods. Mrs. Doucette advises the tellers, who are students from the Business Department. The tellers see how a bank really works and working in the bank may assist them with future plans.

Rita Karim, Leanne LeBeau, Sara Kochanowski

Bible Study

Bible Study consists of a group of students who want to learn more about the Bible. Students in Bible Study do not have to be the same religion. The group meets often to have discussions about the Bible.

SAVE

Save is an environmental group organized by Mr. Clark and a few students who are trying to make a difference in the world. SAVE is primarily concerned with issues such as saving the tropical rainforests, the problem with littering, and the recycling of products such as plastics and paper. With contributions from the student body, SAVE has managed to buy three acres of rain forest in Costa Rica. The main goal of SAVE is to make people aware of these rapidly growing problems.

SADD

SADD is an organization concerned with teaching the hazards of drinking and driving. The group hangs posters in the cafeteria that promote safety. During the Thanksgiving season, SADD passed out contracts for teenagers and their parents to sign. The organization hung a banner at the Pep Rally so everyone could see the effects of drinking and driving.

Scott Marsh, Kerry Rodden

Student Advisory Committee

Each month, Scott Marsh and Kerry Rodden attended the Student Advisory Committee meetings held at the State House. Students from schools in the Boston area discussed problems the schools face and tried to solve them. The committee worked together with government officials trying to improve secondary education.

Joe Brennan, Scott Marsh

School Committee Representatives

Joe Brennan and Scott Marsh were elected by their peers to be Weymouth North's two representatives to the School Committee. At each meeting, they received the chance to either show support or opposition to the school policy. School Committee members are able to see how students feel about their school.

Band

This year's band had a magnificent season. During halftime at the football games, the band put on a great show. The highlight of the season was the Thanksgiving Day game halftime show. Their music gave the Maroons' fans a winning feeling. The team also played at the Pep Rally. President Rajni Steeves proved to be a good leader by helping the band have a great season.

Drill Team

This year's drill team performed with great precision for the football team's fans during halftime. They worked well with the band and never gave a disappointing show. Seniors Karen Luciano, Anne O'Donnell, and Cheryl Purdy gave spirit and pep to the team. Congratulations to the drill team for doing so well.

Cheerleading

Whether the sport is football, basketball or hockey, the cheerleaders are there, filled with enthusiasm, to support the teams and urge them on to victory. Maureen Snell and Kathleen Cross, co-captains of the cheerleaders led the group with their good example of high spirit. The girls attended summer camp and worked hard to perfect their intricate routines. The highly successful Homecoming Dance was organized by the squad and capped a very good year.

Danceline

Although Danceline is a brand new activity at North, it proved to be an excellent one. Captains Cindy Gibbons, Carrie Burke, and Nancy Campbell led the team. The entire team spent some time this summer at camp where they learned to improve their already intricate routines. The girls became eligible to compete in a dance competition in Florida. They performed at the Pep Rally, the Thanksgiving Day football game, and at all the home basketball games.

Yearbook

The production of a high school yearbook involves endless hours of hard work from a staff who must be organized, creative, patient, and enthusiastic. This year's staff was tiny but enormously dedicated. Co-editors Lynne Pflaumer and Colleen Elms worked daily after school to put together a book of memories and special moments which would both be an official record of the year's activities and contain the zany little bits of daily life which are so often the things we all most want to remember.

Godspell

At 8:00 p.m. on December 8 and 9, the Class of 1990 presented Godspell, which told the Gospel according to St. Matthew. Michael Rogers magnificently portrayed Jesus Christ. Scott Marsh, Joyce Avitabile, Kelli Beatrice, Kris Bell, Jeanne Cheverie, Jen Curtis, Peter Dionne, Rob Donovan, and Stephen Donovan performed fantastically, also. The well choreographed chorus danced and sang great. The audience felt a wide range of emotions during the performance. They laughed at Peter Dionne's portrayal of an Italian farmer; were awestruck by Joyce Avitabile's enchanting singing, and felt sorrowful at Michael Rogers' portrayal of Christ dying on the cross. Director Smith and the entire cast and crew of Godspell presented a captivating Senior Class Play.

THE YEAR

Football

The 1989 football team, led by Coach Kelly and Captain Jason Cappello, was extremely successful. The team had depth in the backfield with runners Rich Mroz, Chuck Monturio, Daryn Gladstone, and Keith Struzzieri. Bill Murphy, Chris Ferrara, Owen Graves, Ed Norton, and Dan Daley were great players who could catch Tim Stevenson's passes. The "front five", Matt Deady, Shawn Small, and John Tordiglione put a halt to enemy running backs. The "89 Dream Team", unfortunately, did not go to the Super Bowl or retain the crown of the Old Colony League. But, referees and opposing coaches say, "Weymouth North has such explosive offense and impenetrable defense that they are, without a doubt, the best team in Division Two."

Boys' Soccer

Although the 1989 boys' soccer team suffered many losses, they worked hard. Co-captains Dave McEachern and Tom Long, both talented individuals, along with Coach Gary Burke led the team through an exciting season. Seniors Jim Dolan, Brian Doyle, and Scott Marsh excelled on the field. Nick Xayavong and Jason Scott were accepted by Team USA to play soccer this summer in Europe, and although many players are graduating, next year looks promising.

Girls' Soccer

The 1989 Girls' Soccer Team demonstrated a great deal of talent and enthusiasm. Some of the key players were seniors Katie Stoddard, Kristin Miller, Tracy Tierney, Jill Fitzgerald, and Lisa McGaffigan. The team was led by senior co-captains Kerry Rodden and Kristen West. Coach Frank Stoddard did a good job and proved to be a good leader. Next year's line up has a good outlook with Sue Mathisen, Dawn Faustini, Nicole McKenzie, and sisters Jayne and Judy Schleiff.

Girls' Volleyball

In 1989, tri-captains Nicole Fitzgerald, Kelli Beatrice, and Stacey Strong led the Girls' Volleyball Team through a productive season. With the aid of Coach Donna Ruseckas, these three, as well as seniors Chris McNamara, Rajni Steeves, and Debbie Ainslie, displayed their skill and enthusiasm by improving on last year's record. At the end of the season, after two stunning victories over St. Gregory's and Dedham, Nicole won the MVP and Stacey received the Unsung Hero Award. Underclassmen Lisa Cheney and Beth Evans look forward to leading the team to even greater heights next year.

Girls' Swim Team

Although there were few participants on this year's Girls' Swim Team, those who participated took the team to the Suburban League Meet and placed seventh in the 400 Yard Freestyle Relay. Particularly strong swimmers were Kara Sweeney in the 100 Yard Breaststroke and Erin Lynch in both the 50 and 100 Yard Freestyles.

Cross Country

Although the 1990 Cross Country Team was small, the runners showed spunk and determination. Seniors Mark Carroll, Jethren Mattus, and Jim Bonkowski ran well. Underclassmen Amy Geyer, Karen Soule, Chris Scully, and John Bates were hard-working. Coach Berall's team will return next season even stronger.

Hockey

The Hockey Team, coached by Kevin Hefferman and Michael McDonald, had a fairly good season. The boys suffered some tough losses, but also had great victories. Co-Captains Bill Murphy and Ronnie Fama were beneficial to the Maroons. Seniors Jon DiRamio and Matt MacNeil and juniors Dan Chouinard and Kevin Houlihan played well on offense. Seniors Jon Dean, Shawn Kelly, and junior Greg Moore provided good defense for the team as well.

Wrestling

The Wrestling Team showed that they were a well coached and tough team. Seniors Mike Kral and Matt Deady were strong competitors at all of the Maroons' meets. Juniors Dave Joyce and Joe Mackin's opponents found out that they were difficult pin. Coach Mackin helped the team have a successful season.

Gymnastics

The Gymnastics Team was, once again, one of the best gymnastic teams in the Old Colony League. Top scorers were seniors Stephanie Parrott and juniors Heather Madden and Whitney Keefe. Stephanie was magnificent on the uneven bars as was Heather in the floor exercises. The entire team made the intricate moves they perfomed seem easy, although they weren't.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball Team had a fair season. The girls played well, but had some tough losses. Senior Kerry Rodden and junior Sue Mathisen were outstanding players. Also playing well were seniors Lisa McGaffigan and Rajni Steeves. With many players returning for next season, the outlook is promising.

(front row) Mary Remington, Kerry Rodden, Lisa McGaffigan, Jen Walsh

Boys' Basketball

The Boys' Basketball Team had a fantastic season. Coached by Mr. Shoff, the team had many wins. Rick Perkins was a great asset to the Maroons. Rich reached the 1,000 point mark during the season. Seniors Brian Doyle, Joe Brennan, Dave McEachern, and Jim Dolan played well at each game. At every game, the entire team was ready to score the points needed to win.

Boys' Indoor Track

The Boys' Indoor Track Team, coached by Mr. Lonergan, worked hard throughout the winter. Jethren Mattus and Jim Bonkowski ran particularly well. Marty McDonagh, Jeff Coutu, and Terence Gibbons also gave good performances. The boys were dedicated and they showed this by staying after school and running through the halls.

Girls' Indoor Track

The win-loss record of the Girls' Indoor Track Team does not begin to reflect the team's spirit and skill, which the girls developed during the '89-'90 season. Senior Stacey Strong was successful in the hurdles. Sue Sculley, Andrea Illes, and Amy Geyer proved that they were outstanding runners. With all of this young talent, the outlook for next year's team is promising.

Lacrosse

In 1989 the Lacrosse team went 16-2, the best record in Weymouth North history, capturing the Division One South title for the second year running, and placing at fourth seed in the tournament. Although they lost the quarterfinals to Newton North, who became the Eastern Mass. champs, the Maroons still played well.

This year, nine varsity players will be returning, including seniors George Gartley, Tim Stevenson, Chris Ziniti, Scott Marsh, and Owen Graves. Jim Francis, Dan Lindblom, Tim Stevenson, Pat McCusker, and Mike Kelly were chosen for the Patriot Ledger All-Scholastic lacrosse team while, in addition, Jim Francis and Dan Lindblom made the Boston Globe All-Scholastic lacrosse team.

Coach Tony Manzelli firmly believes that another excellent season may lead to the state title.

Baseball

The 1989 baseball team was much stronger than its 7-11 record might indicate. The Maroons lost several close games to very tough Old Colony League opponents. They were a young team, and many sluggers are returning for the 1990 baseball season including Jim Dolan, Jon Dean, Joe Brennan, Charlie Hicks, Matt Walsh, Ron Fama, and Al Provos. All-Star Seniors Ron Dowd and Jerry Thomes led their classmates Don Walden, Brad Shields, Rich Grafton, Ed Woods, Jim Leone, Joe Glover, and Mike Gassiraro in their last year of baseball at Weymouth North.

Softball

The 1989 softball team was tough and determined. Melissa Allen, Kerri Quinn, and Sharon Krish, all '89 graduates, and Coach Ruseckas got the team to give it their all. Three of the many girls that demonstrated sharp skills were Rachael Horwath, Jen Morgan, and Kris Bell. The 1990 season looks promising with the work of outfielders Lisa Cheney, Dawn Faustini, and Mary Remington. The team will be looking for a strong defense from Kathleen Cross and Nicole Fitzgerald.

Boys' Tennis

The 1989 Boys' Tennis Team featured both outstanding players and exciting matches. Co-captains Mike Rogers and Peter Dionne led Weymouth North in a great season. Mike at number 1 singles and Peter at number 2 singles had many tough and exciting matches. Ed Norton at third singles proved to be one of the best at that position in the Old Colony League. Ed had major wins against the powerhouses Hingham and Marshfield. The team was completed with Tom Morse and Mike Murphy as a strong first doubles combination, and with Pierre Boudart and Tony Sacchetti pairing up at second doubles.

With the loss of only one senior, and with the ever improving young players, the 1990 season will certainly be a great one!

Girls' Tennis

The Girls' Tennis Team of 1989 shows great promise for the upcoming 1990 season. Despite the record, the team of 1989 showed a great deal of sportsmanship and effort, as well as great improvement in their skills. The whole varsity team of 1989 will be back in 1990. The seniors, who include Kim Merrill, Kristen Miller, Kerry Rodden, Kara Sweeney, and Kristen West have high hopes for the spring season and are sure of a great year.

Boys' Spring Track

The 1989 Boys' Spring Track Team missed Mr. Lonergan, but the loss was made up by Mr. Farina's strong coaching abilities. The team, although small, competed well against much larger teams. In sprints, Barry Bourassa, Rich Mroz, and Jim Bonkowski were top in the league. In the 220, Pat Morris qualified for States. In the 440, Jethren Mattus was strong and often placed in first or second. Nick Parker, in the mile, followed suit. Mark Hostetter was number one in the Old Colony League in the two mile and a top competitor in the States.

Girls' Spring Track

The Girls' Spring Track Team had a good season in '89. Although the girls did not win a meet, they tried hard and performed well. Kristen Connelly, Susan Sullivan, and Michele Matteson, all '89 graduates; gave especially good performances. Regina Benson, Kristen Belmarsh, Amy Geyer, Stacy Strong, and Sue Sculley were notable runners also. The returning runners are enthusiastically looking forward to the '90 season.

Boys' Volleyball

The 1989 Boys' Volleyball Team demonstrated talent and skill. Tri-Captains Dave McEachern, Joe Mahan, and Derek Lawson led the team. Kevin DiBona and Eric Koe, both '89 graduates, were strong players, as were Steve Soule and Mark Mitchelson. With the return of many players, the 1990 season looks promising.
